

Elizabeth Crot

- Hometown: Chesapeake
- Education: James Madison University
B.A. in English
- Platform Issue: Get Involved: Change Your World!
Encouraging volunteerism as an essential part of life
- Talent: Classical Vocal
- Scholastic Ambition: Doctorate degree in Diversity Studies
- Career Ambition: To become a Broadway performer, motivational speaker, and non-profit fundraiser.
- Scholastic Honors:
- ★ James Madison University Dean's List
 - ★ Recipient of Hickory Choral Scholarship
 - ★ Recipient of Chesapeake Music Study Scholarship, and Fine Arts Commission Scholarship
- Accomplishments:
- ★ Helped raise over $3,700 for Children's Miracle Network at Miracle Idol Fundraiser
 - ★ Developed Amazing Graces: Memories in Song - a fundraiser for the Alzheimer's Association
 - ★ Selected as 1 of 11 students accepted into the James Madison University School of Music
 - ★ Named soloist for Mozart's Vespers, and Handel's Messiah

The defining moment in my life was the day I sang to a family member with Alzheimer's who remembered every word of "Amazing Grace," and I realized the healing power of music.

Booking Information: Miss Virginia Organization
Robert Zimmerman - Business Manager for Miss Virginia
P. O. Box 9604 ♦ Roanoke, VA 24020-1604
MissVaManager@cox.net ♦ www.missva.com