Pageant Wardrobe

Your clothing should be well organized and carefully thought out. The following suggestions will help you plan your wardrobe for pageant week.

- Arrival: You will be seen in the lobby of the hotel. Dress casually, but remember photographers may be on hand photographing you.
- Rehearsal Clothes: Casual clothes and comfortable shoes are a must. It is imperative that you dress comfortably and remember that the auditorium gets cold even when it is 95 degrees outside. Please do not "break-in" new shoes during rehearsals.
- Welcome Luncheon: Sundress or Church dress
- Appearances: Clothing will be the choice of each Virginia Princess. Guidelines will be given at a later date and clothing should reflect the activity.
- Miss Virginia Performance: Wear a white short or tea length dress.

Chaperones

Chaperones will be provided during rehearsals, appearances and performances. No Parents will have backstage access.

NO EXCEPTIONS! Parents or legal guardian are responsible at all other times not previously listed.

Award Explanations

Essay Contest

Participation in the essay contest is optional for each princess. The topic is "Who has inspired me the most." Princesses are encouraged to participate.

Judging and essay criteria will be based on two age groups. The groups are ages 6 – 9 and 10 & up. For the younger group, the essays should be one page typed, written or a picture. For the older group, essays should be two pages typed or written. The committee appreciates creativity and attention to detail, but reminds all princesses that the essays will be judged not only based on the story itself, but also by the ability to stay within the essay limits. There will be a $100 savings bond awarded in each age group. Each participant should include their name and social security number on their essay. Social security numbers are needed to award the savings bond, and will be maintained as confidential information.

School Honor Awards

The Virginia Princess committee would like to praise their young ladies for not only representing their community as a Virginia Princess, but for also being able to excel in school. There will be three certificates of achievement that will be given out - The Perfect Attendance award, the Principal's List award and the Honor Roll award. The needed information for these certificates to be awarded are as follows:

Perfect Attendance Award – Must provide a report card from the entire school year which shows you have been present every day.

Principal's List Award – Must provide a report card from the entire school year which shows you have made all A's or for younger girls all O's or S's.

Honor Roll Award – Must provide a report card from the entire school year which shows you have made all A's and B's.

All award information must be received by June 15, 2010. The judgement of all awards is at the discretion of the committee.
